

The Eastern Kentucky University Counseling Center (EKUCC) is currently accepting applications for a 15-hour/week unpaid practicum position beginning Fall semester (August 2017) and ending after Spring semester (May 2018). The EKUCC offers a graduate level advanced practicum program for masters and doctoral students in counseling and psychology (counseling or clinical). The practicum program at EKUCC has been specifically designed to give trainees a full range of experience found within a comprehensive university counseling center.

Minimum requirements:

- Must be currently enrolled in a psychology or counseling-related graduate program and must have completed all prerequisites for practicum as specified by your training program.
- Must have completed 1 or more courses in each of the following subject areas: basic counseling/clinical skills, multiculturalism, and ethics.
- Must have had at least 1 semester of experience as a counselor or psychological services provider.

The practicum experience includes:

- Two-day orientation prior to the beginning of fall semester (specific dates TBA)
- On-going caseload of approximately 6-8 clients
- A minimum of one hour/week of individual face-to-face supervision
- One hour/week of group supervision/didactic seminar
- Weekly review of session recordings and all clinical documentation by supervisor

Typical duties/experiences of trainees include:

- Provision of individual therapy
- Clinical consultation with professional staff regarding a wide variety of topics
- Outreach presentations to classes and groups
- Administrative activities such as front desk coverage, research, and/or staff meetings

Possible additional training opportunities based on interest, skill, and experience:

- Observe or co-facilitate therapy groups
- Live supervision, observation of staff therapy sessions, and/or peer supervision
- Additional (beyond 15/week minimum) direct service hours, if schedule allows

More information about the services, staff, and programs at the EKUCC is available on the website: www.counseling.eku.edu. Contact the EKUCC at the address/email listed below or call 859-622-1303 for additional information.

Interested/qualified applicants must submit a letter of interest (including your reason for choosing the EKUCC practicum, relevant previous experiences, and what you hope to gain from a practicum experience at EKUCC), a resume or curriculum vitae, and a letter of recommendation by MONDAY, March 6, 2017. Applicants selected for an interview will be contacted after all applications have been reviewed. There will be 2-4 positions available, and the process will be highly competitive.
